PERSONAL INTERESTS

Graphic and communication design are not only what I have studied and what I want to do in my life, but they are mainly a big passion. Most of all, I love editorial design and, more generally, everything that is print design. It is not only the design aspect that interests me, though, but also the big changes that are involving the publishing industry nowadays.

Also brand design, infographics and photography are disciplines that interest and fascinate me a lot.

Moreover, advertising is another discipline for which I have a great interest and which I love to observe with a critical eye.
